

Personal Financial Declaration

Master of Science 2023

All international applicants to BI must submit a financial plan to show how they intend to finance the degree and living expenses. The completed form should be uploaded with your online application.

Name:		Date of Birth:
Nationality:	Country of residence:
If you have a scholarship from any other institution than BI, please fill in name of institution:

Estimated costs for one academic year*:

BI annual tuition fees: BI-Luiss programme: NOK 123000 MSc in Business Analytics and MSc in Data Science: NOK 120800 All other programmes: NOK 114200	Annual living expenses: Official estimate: NOK 128 887 The amount is estimated by UDI, and should cover room, board, course literature and other personal expenses.
--	---

Personal financial plan

The sum (in NOK) must cover the total of tuition fees and living expenses as stated above.

	1 st year	2 nd year
Own Savings
Family support
Bank loan
Scholarship
Others
Total

Note: To secure a study permit, applicants from outside the EU/EEA are required by Norwegian authorities to provide a deposit covering the first-year tuition and living expenses. You will need to make the deposit before you can start your application for a study permit.

Date	Signature
-------------	------------------

Subject to annual adjustments*

Norwegian
Business School

 Due to the Norwegian State Budget 2023, international students with citizenship from outside the EU/EEA who do not have permanent residency in Norway may be assessed an additional 30% on the base tuition fees.*

For information on scholarships available from BI, please see bi.edu/scholarships. Please note scholarships may be awarded to high academic achievers. Applicants should not depend on a scholarship to finance their studies and are encouraged to explore all avenues for funding.